To The Descendants of John and Elizabeth Aikman Galbreath:

The research for this genealogical outline has covered a period of several years, has necessitated the writing of scores of letters and has taken the authors to record files in Indiana, Ohio and Pennsylvania.

It has never been our ambition to produce an exhaustive record of the family down to date, but rather to establish the "line" which we have now accomplished and which we proudly submit to you in this form.

We would gratefully acknowledge the assistance of all those who provided material for one or more branches of the family. Without their help the task would have been infinitely more tedious.

With opposite pages blank, it is our hope that each family will correct and extend its own record, that posterity may have an understanding and appreciation of the undaunted courage and spirit of its pioneer ancestry.

Clara Galbreath Royse Moran and Marie Galbreath Good

It has been submitted as a supplemental line by Mrs. Florence Galbreath Royse Spiesshofer, of Warsaw, Indiana, to the National Society, Daughters of the American Revolution, and was accepted by them under National No. 91720. Anyone wishing to affiliate with that Society on this line may use that number in proving eligibility.

The Name and Family of Galbraith

The Media Research Bureau of Washington, D. C. has the following to say of The Name and Family of Galbraith:

"The Name of Galbraith or Galbreath is generally believe to be Celtic or Gaelic in origin and to have originally meant "the strange Briton," having been adopted as a surname by the sons of one so called. The following quotation, a translation from the Gaelic, illustrates the antiquity of the name:

"Galbraiths from the Red Tower,
Noblest of Scottish surnames."

According to certain accounts, the family originated in County Sterling, Scotland and later went into the Irish Counties of Ulster, Leitrim, Donegal, Tyrone, Longford, Dunbarton and others.

The first of the name in America are believed to have been brothers, John and James Galbreith or Galbreath, who were the sons of one John Galbraith of the North of Ireland. They emigrated to Pennsylvania about the year 1718, if not before.

From the notes of genealogist McKee we have the following, "James, on his accession to the throne, offered allotments to the Scots and persuaded the better class to emigrate, but Charles I succeeded to the throne and by all sorts of persecutions, fines and confiscations, broke down their property. Rents on land raised, so reduced people to poverty. Rents raised further under Charles II and James II.

The Scots began emigrating to Northern Ireland and thence to America. By 1729 it is estimated 6,000 had come, among them John and James Galbreath (Galbraith). John stayed in Philadelphia, James pushed out into Conestoga, afterward called Donegal. One record shows arrivals as "James Galbraith 52, wife Rebecca, eldest son John 28, wife Janet 25, son Robert 3, son Andrew 26." These are our ancestors.

From Joel Munsell's Sons "The Galbraiths of Donegal" we have the following:

"The family of Galbraith is one of the remotest antiquity, the name being derived from the Celtic. It was in the Parish of Baldunoch, county Sterling, that the Galbraiths of Baldunoch, chiefs of the name, had their residence. In Frazar's statistical account of the inhabitants of the Isle of Gigha, the following occurs: "The majority of them are of the names of Galbraith and McNeill, the former reckoned the more ancient."

The Galbraiths in the Gaelic language are called Breatannich, that is Britons or the children of the Briton, and were once reckoned a great name in Scotland according to the following lines translated from the Gaelic:

"Galbraiths from the Red Tower,
Noblest of Scottish surnames."

The first of the name of whom we have any mention is John Galbraith, who was the father of the following. He probably died before the emigration of his sons from Ireland to America.

- *1 James m. Rebecca Chambers
- 2 John m. and left issue

1 James Galbraith 2 (John 1) b. 1666, in the north of Ireland from whence he emigrated about the year 1718, settling in Conestoga, afterwards Donegal, township, then Chester county, Province of Pennsylvania. He was one of the founders of old Derry church, a man of prominence and head of a remarkable family. He died Aug. 23, 1744 and is buried in the old graveyard at Derry. His wife was Rebecca Chambers, daughter of Arthur Chambers. Of his children we have the following:

- A. John, b. 1690 m. Janet
- *B. Andrew b. 1692
- C. James b. 1703 m. Elizabeth Bertram
- D. Eleanor m. Feb. 27, 1735, Patrick McKinley and had issue (surname McKinley) 1 John 2 Joseph 3 Janet
- E. Isabel m. Oct. 21, 1735 Alexander McMillan
- F. Rebecca d. 1748 m. ----Steward had issue (surname Steward) 1 Charles 2 Robert 3 William 4 Frances 5 Margaret"

*B. Andrew Galbraith 3 (James 2, John 1) b. 1692 in North of Ireland, came to Pennsylvania with his father, James (1666-1744) about 1718 and settled in what later became Lancaster county. Andrew helped in the organization of the county and became its first coroner. Later he held the offices of Justice of the Court of Common Pleas, Representative to the General Assembly, Justice of the Peace and was also one of the first Ruling Elders of the old Donegal Church. He served several years in the Provincial Assembly and was one of the most prominent of the pioneer settlers. Of his children there is only record of the following:

- *1 John b 1717 m. Jennett McCullough
- 2 Arthur
- 3 Robert d. prior to 1768 m. left Ann age 16

*1 John Galbraith 4 (Andrew 3, James 2, John 1) b. about 1717 in the North of Ireland or in Donegal township, Lancaster county, Pennsylvania, d. Jan. 20, 1757, in Cumberland County, Pennsylvania and was buried in Silvers Spring Church yard. He was married April 23, 1742 to Jennett McCullough. The McCulloughs were early pioneers to Darke County, Ohio. William Wray and wife Mary, sister of John Galbreath 5, arrived in Darke County about 1800. Another sister Nancy and her husband James Pollock also came to Darke County.

John and Jennett McCullough had issue as follows:

A. James, b. 1743; m. Martha McClellan.

B. Jennett, b. 1745.

C. Sarah, b. 1747.

*D. Robert, b. 1748.

*D. Robert Galbraith 5 (John 4, Andrew 3, James 2, John 1) was born in Cumberland County, Penna. in 1748. He died in 1793 or 1795 in Allen Township, Cumberland Co., Penna. About 1870 he married Mary (possibly Brannon). He was a soldier of the American Revolution. His name appears in a list of "Rangers on the Frontiers 1778-1783," page 604, vol. 4, Fifth Series, Pennsylvania Archives, as well as in other lists of Cumberland Co. militia commanded by Col. James Dunlap and Capt. William Morehead, also listed in Penna. Archives. The children of Robert and Mary appear in the following order in the Court Records at Carlisle, Penna.

1. Nancy, m. James Pollock.

2. Mary, m. William Wray.

3. Elizabeth, m. Benjamin Hunt.

4. James.

5. Jane, m. Joseph Williams.

6. Robert, b. 1782.

*7. John, b. 1785.

*7. John Galbraith 6 (Robert 5, John 4, Andrew 3, James 2, John 1) was born March 29, 1785 in Allen Township, Cumberland Co., Penna. Since his father Robert 5 died in 1793 or 1795 leaving minor children, of whom John was the youngest (age 8 or 10 yrs.), it is probable that John followed his older sisters and his grandmother's people to Darke Co., Ohio. His mother Mary may have come too. Ellihue Galbreath 8 (Milton 7, John 6), who lived his entire life near the original John and Elizabeth homestead near Arcanum, Ohio, related at 86, and memory clear, that his grandfather John Galbraith "came to Ohio from Penna. about 1800 when he was just a boy, with his brother James, to visit relatives." On May 23, 1811, John Galbraith was married by David Purviance to Elizabeth Aikman, daughter of Benjamin Aikman. She had four brothers James, John, Alexander and Benjamin and was the only girl. The Aikmans came to Ohio from Berks Co., Penna. in 1808 and spent the first winter in the fort at Greenville, Darke Co., Ohio. The next spring they bought a farm in Preble Co., Ohio, where they lived until 1820, when they moved back to Darke Co. In 1818 John Galbraith became a member of the Masonic Order. In the spring of 1819 he was made a Master Mason in Pickaway Lodge no. 23 at Circleville, Ohio. Entries in the lodge books are made under three different spellings: Galbreath, Galbraith and Gilbraith. The last spelling is the one that is used in making the entry for marriage record at Eaton, Ohio in Preble Co. which appears thus:

"I do certify that John Gilbraith and Elizabeth Aikman were joined in the bonds of matrimony on the 23rd day of May 1811 by me

David Purviance."

Both John and Elizabeth attended the Universalist Church at Castine, Ohio. They may have been members. Elizabeth continued her allegiance to that church after John died and she went to live with her son Samuel at Pierceton, Ind.

John Galbraith died Sept. 22, 1855 near Arcanum, Ohio. Ellihue related that his earliest memory was attending his grandfather's funeral when the procession was halted by the crossing of a herd of deer. He is buried in the cemetery at Arcanum and his gravestone bears the Masonic emblem. Elizabeth Aikman Galbraith was born Oct. 24, 1788 in Berks Co., Penna. and died Jan. 6, 1869. She is buried on the Samuel Galbreath lot in Hillcrest Cemetery near Pierceton, Kosciusko Co., Ind. Their ten children are listed as follows in the Bible of John Galbraith, which is now in the possession of Robert Quinn 9 (Jemimah 8, Samuel 7, John 6):

- L. Joseph Galbreath, b. May 12, 1812.
- II. Mary Galbreath (Polly) b. Jan. 11, 1814.
- III. John Galbreath, b. March 11, 1816.
- IV. Elizabeth Galbreath, b. Feb. 20, 1818.
- V. Benjamin Galbreath, b. June 15, 1820.
- VI. Alexander Galbreath, b. May 6, 1822.
- VII. Jackson A. Galbreath, b. Sept. 1, 1824.
- VIII. Samuel Galbreath, b. Apr. 9, 1827.
- IX. Milton M. Galbreath, b. March 13, 1829.
- X. Charlotte Galbreath, b. Sept. 19, 1832.

Four brothers of this family, Joseph, Alexander, Jackson and Samuel, pioneered into Kosciusko Co., Ind. from Preble Co., Ohio as early as 1838 or 1839 when Joseph arrived to 1853 when Alexander arrived. In 1931 Mrs. Minnie Galbreath Leiser 9 (John Charles 8, Joseph 7, John 6) of South Bend, Ind. organized a reunion of the families of these four brothers. Eleven such annual gatherings have been held, five in South Bend, Ind., four in Kalamazoc, Mich. and two at Webster Lake, Ind. Reunions have been discontinued during war due to transportation but will be resumed at its close. It is then expected that relatives from all branches of the family of John and Elizabeth Aikman Galbraith may be interested in attending. The following have served in the capacity of president since the organization of the family

- Samuel Galbreath 8 (Joseph 7, John 6) 1931-1935
- Robert Quinn 9 (Jemimah 8, Samuel 7, John 6) 1936-1937
- Dr. Meritt Galbreath 9 (Samuel 8, Joseph 7, John 6) 1938-1940
- Miss Ida Galbreath 9 (John Charles 8, Joseph 7, John 6) 1941-

1. JOSEPH GALBREATH, oldest son of John and Elizabeth Aikman Galbreath, was born May 12, 1812 in Preble Co., Ohio. He was married first to Eliza Bricker in Ohio and moved to Kosciusko Co., Ind. in 1839, bringing with them their two eldest children, John and Martin. They lived temporarily on Eel River near Liberty Mills. In a few months they moved to a farm east and north of Pierceton, Ind., which he had purchased, or possibly proved on. After the Civil War he sold this farm and moved to Valparaiso and later bought from a family named Poce a farm three miles west of Valparaiso. He lived there until his death Oct. 31, 1897.
